An induction cooktop works by using magnetic energy to heat the pot or pan, put simply – the pot is the element. The latest technology of zoneless induction cooking allows you to place pots and pans of various sizes anywhere within the zones and the cooktop will automatically recognise the pot. This 600mm Series 3 zoneless induction cooktop features a flexible cooking area consisting of two independent inductors with separate touch slider controls.

A quick and controlled solution for your kitchen..

Impressive 7 Year Warranty

Note: 7 year warranty is for domestic use only.
